

ATENA AMIRYAGHOobi, PARALEGAL

Atena joined Richards Buell Sutton in 2022, bringing her knowledge to the Wealth Preservation Group.

She began her legal career at a boutique law firm in 2018 as part of her paralegal practicum, specializing in the field of Estate Planning and Administration. In 2019, she moved on to a medium-sized firm where she worked in the solicitor's department in the areas of Corporate Services, Residential/Commercial Real Estate, and Estate Planning and Administration.

Atena spent much of her earlier days volunteering as a camp counsellor and trainer at the Cheakamus Centre in Squamish, formerly known and loved as the North Vancouver Outdoor School. She also sat on the Board of Directors of the Alumni Society as a Member-at-Large and Secretary for 5 years.

Outside of work, Atena enjoys spending time with family and friends, watching true crime documentaries, cooking, baking and attending live music events. She is also conversational in Farsi.
