COLE THEOBALD, SUMMER STUDENT

Born and raised in North Vancouver, B.C., Cole earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Victoria, completing a double major in economics and philosophy with a finance option.

During law school, Cole worked as a co-op student with the BC Freedom of Information and Privacy Association, contributing to the development of a new public interest disclosure procedure.

Cole played football and basketball on the North Shore, earning the MVP award while representing Team BC as quarterback. Each spring, he helps his parents run their non-profit youth flag football league, supporting the development of community sports and youth engagement.

Outside of the office, Cole enjoys golfing, snowboarding, playing pool, and travelling.
