JONATHAN M.S. WOOLLEY, PARTNER

Jonathan Woolley is the Practice Group Leader of our Appellate Advocacy Group, and a member of the firm's Intellectual Property and Advanced Education and Research Groups. He maintains a broad litigation practice, with particular emphasis on intellectual property and commercial litigation, as well as the representation of professionals before their regulatory bodies. He has appeared at all levels of court in B.C., the Yukon Court of Appeal, the Federal Court and Federal Court of Appeal, as well as the B.C. Human Rights Tribunal and various professional regulatory bodies.

Jonathan's intellectual property litigation practice focuses on copyright and trademark law, and he represents commercial clients in contract and shareholder disputes. Jonathan also has experience in professional negligence claims, insolvency, and administrative and regulatory law. Jonathan regularly acts for lenders in foreclosures and unsecured collections, having acted for major Canadian banks as well as private lenders.

Jonathan joined the firm in 2014, after having practised at a large litigation firm, and later a litigation boutique, in Vancouver. In 2011 he obtained Master of Laws degrees from New York University and the National University of Singapore while based in Singapore and Shanghai.

Jonathan was born in Newfoundland and grew up in Saskatchewan. He enjoys reading, music, travel, and spending time with his family.

Jonathan provides legal services through Jonathan M.S. Woolley Law Corporation.
