SALLY HUNG, PARALEGAL

Sally Hung is a paralegal in the firm's Wealth Preservation Group, specializing in corporate transactions and reorganizations.

She has experience in a variety of corporate-related transactions, including tax driven transactions and reorganizations, incorporations, organizations, amalgamations, amendments/alterations, redemptions, dividends, continuances, dissolutions and business name registrations. She also has experience dealing with unlimited liability companies and Federal corporations.

She provides effective and timely communications, using her years of experience to proactively move the file forward at every opportunity.

Outside of the office, she enjoys baking, cooking, gardening, travelling and going to the gym.
