RBS EXPANDS ASIA PACIFIC PRACTICE GROUP

We are pleased to announce that Tommy M. Chan has joined the firm as a member of the firm's Asia Pacific Practice Group. Tommy M. Chan joined the firm as an Associate with the Estate and Wealth Advisory Group in May 2017 and maintains a litigation practice in the areas of wills and estates, foreclosure, and insolvency law. Tommy can provide legal services in Cantonese and is also conversant in Mandarin.

"We are pleased to welcome Tommy as the newest member of our Asia Pacific Practice. He will add language expertise, depth and bench strength when servicing our regional and Asia Pacific clients"
- Sze-Mei Yeung, Leader of the Asia Pacific Practice Group.

Richards Buell Sutton's Asia Pacific Group is comprised of lawyers with language capabilities in Mandarin, Cantonese, and Japanese and their work encompasses small to large deals, litigation matters, securities advice and transactions, wealth management, estate planning, immigration, real estate transactions, and other corporate-related matters that support private individuals and businesses across many industries, including the energy sector. RBS also receives Asia Pacific referral work from other local and international law firms which is a testament to its experience and capabilities in this area of law.
