RED TALKS VANCOUVER BRINGS TOGETHER REAL ESTATE LEADERS FOR THE CITY'S PRESENT, AND FUTURE

RED Talks Vancouver's Demographic Collision, a speaker series which recently took place on city life and urban ideas, was sponsored by our firm's Real Estate Group. This industry event brought together global Real Estate leaders including developers, city planners & innovators to share ideas that impact Vancouver today and in the future. Real Estate partner, Sharon E. White, Q.C., spearheaded this "Community Level" sponsorship, championing our involvement with this innovative and successful initiative which garnered over 2.3 million media impressions, and had nearly 700 attendees.

Dear Sharon,

On behalf of everyone at the Urban Development Institute (UDI), I would like to personally thank you for your generous support of RED Talks 2018. This year's edition "Demography Collision" introduced over 500 guests to a diverse and entertaining sampling of urban thought leaders and industry innovators from across North America. Through your sponsorship of RED Talks 2018, the event injected a positive buzz among UDI's key partners and stakeholders throughout the region.

We hope that your partnership with RED Talks exceeded your expectations and you may consider working with us again on delivering the next edition.

Thank you again for your generous sponsorship.

With very best regards,

Anne McMullin
