WE ARE HIRING...

Legal Administrative Assistant/Paralegal (hybrid)

RBS is looking a Legal Administrative Assistant/Paralegal (hybrid) to work closely with one of our partners in Personal Injury, who specializes in serious injury and cycling advocacy. The ideal candidate will have a strong understanding of personal injury, strong drafting skills and the ability to run a file from start to finish. Must have a keen eye for detail, the ability to juggle competing priorities and the ability to work independently.

Securities/Corporate Paralegal

RBS is looking for a strong intermediate paralegal to work with our Securities Partner and our Corporate Services Department. The ideal candidate must have a solid understanding of securities law, possess strong drafting skills, be knowledgeable in SEDAR, SEDI, (some EDGAR) and have some understanding of ALF. Corporate experience is also preferred. You should be able to work independently, have a keen eye for detail and be able to prioritize competing priorities.

Commercial Real Estate Associate, 6-8+ years' experience

Our flourishing real estate practice seeks a senior real estate associate to join our established team. We seek a client-focused, experienced associate who works well in a busy, collaborative team environment, while also demonstrating the ability to take initiative and work independently.

We advise clients in all aspects of commercial real estate and all stages of complex and mixed-use development. Our team of lawyers and staff assist clients with the acquisition, financing, rezoning, development, leasing, and sale of commercial properties throughout British Columbia.

We believe we have earned the loyalty of developers and owners by anticipating their needs, acting swiftly to ensure deals close and bringing creative solutions to routine and complex issues.

If you are interested in joining our team, please submit your letter and resume in confidence to HR Manager, Cindy Hildebrandt at childebrandt@rbs.ca.
