WELL RESPECTED ENTERTAINMENT AND BUSINESS LAWYER, JOHN NICOLLS, JOINS RICHARDS BUELL SUTTON LLP AS ASSOCIATE COUNSEL.

John recently joined Richards Buell Sutton LLP's Wealth Preservation team, with a focus on Personal Estate Planning. John has an extensive background in private practice, as in-house counsel, and as a business executive. He provides his clients with comprehensive, timely and practical advice.

John was a former Treasurer of the Canadian Film and Television Production Association (BC Branch). He also spent a number of years writing and consulting in various media including a three-year stint in Los Angeles working in-house for Pacific Century Television. He also wrote for "Street Legal", the hit CBC legal drama, wrote and directed a short film "The Highway House", and created and wrote a monthly column, "Brollywood" for Vancouver Magazine.

Richards Buell Sutton LLP is pleased to welcome John to the firm.
